

To Fit:
DAF Trucks
Repl. no. 1811 123

EN

Steering column switches from febi: Always a high quality alternative

The quality of steering column switches is extremely important. Only high-quality materials and exact processing of the mechanical and electrical components can ensure reliable operation and a long life. Steering column switches from febi offer not only high quality but also conforms to the vehicle manufacturers colour coded circuit diagrams. Matching OE specification and consistency in troubleshooting.

For more technical information please visit: partsfinder.bilsteingroup.com